

Byron Avenue Supported Living

Byron Avenue is a warm and homely shared supported living property for up to four adults with learning disabilities, autism, and mental health needs.

You'll find us in Borehamwood - a lively Hertfordshire town with great transport links into London and plenty of local amenities close by.

There are four comfortable bedrooms spread across three floors - one on the ground floor - a cosy lounge for relaxing together, a kitchen-diner for shared meals, and a small garden. We've also created a quiet sensory room on the second floor - a calming space for personal time and reflection.

Inside, there's a warm and friendly atmosphere. Our team work closely with each person, helping them build confidence, develop life skills, and take positive steps toward greater independence. At Byron Avenue, every day is shaped by the people who live here - it's about connection, choice, and growing at your own pace.

Person Specification

We'd love to welcome adults aged 18-50 looking for a supportive, friendly home - a place to build daily living skills and enjoy life in the community. It's also ideal for those in transition, ready for their next step towards independence.

Your journey to involve

Step 1.

Your journey starts with a referral from your care team. We'll then arrange a meeting with you to see if the home is a good match.

Step 2.

If all involved feel the move should take place, you'll be invited to visit the home and the local area to see if you like it.

Step 3.

If everyone is happy for the move to take place, we'll then plan your move into your new home at a pace that's right for you.

Byron Avenue is opposite a local children's play park and close to shops, cafés, leisure facilities, and green spaces. Borehamwood has a strong community feel, with excellent transport links and easy access to everything the wider Hertfordshire and North London areas have to offer.
