

35-37 Hill End Supported Living

35-37 Hill End is a friendly and relaxed seven-bedroom supported living home in St Albans, rated CQC Outstanding. We support adults with autism and mental health needs who benefit from some day-to-day support and input.

Each person has their own comfortable bedroom, and there are spacious shared areas including a bright lounge, a welcoming dining space, and a fully equipped communal kitchen. A garden at the back offers space to unwind, enjoy the sunshine, or take part in outdoor activities, while the cinema room is a favourite for shared film nights.

Our team provides person-centred support that helps each person grow in independence and confidence. Through our Strive model of support, we focus on building safe, stable routines and meaningful relationships, encouraging independence and emotional wellbeing.

There's always something happening here - from shared meals and movie nights to trips to local cafés, community events, and peaceful walks nearby.

Person Specification

We'd love to welcome a kind, sociable person with capacity who values independence while living with others in a friendly household.

The ideal housemate will be someone who's open to community life, shared activities, and a little help when needed.

Your journey to involve

Step 1.

Your journey starts with a referral from your care team. We'll then arrange a meeting with you to see if the home is a good match.

Step 2.

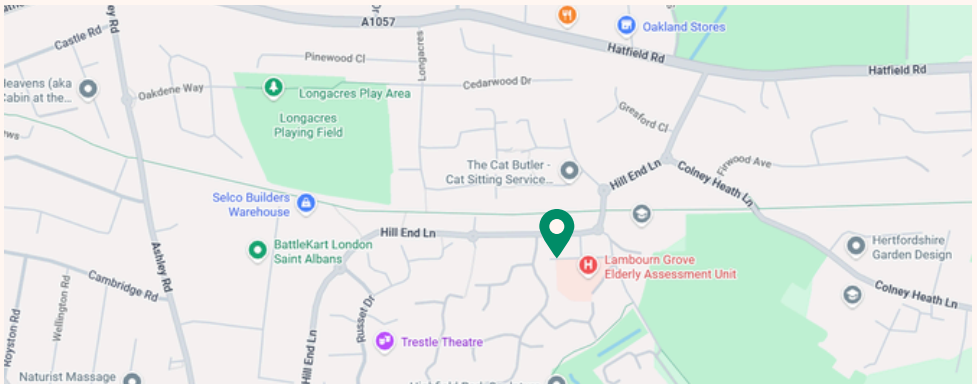

If all involved feel the move should take place, you'll be invited to visit the home and the local area to see if you like it.

Step 3.

If everyone is happy for the move to take place, we'll then plan your move into your new home at a pace that's right for you.

35-37 Hill End Lane is set in a quiet residential area of St Albans, with excellent transport links and easy access to shops, cafés, and local parks. The area is well connected to local bus routes and just a short drive from the city centre, where there's plenty to explore, from historic sights to markets and green open spaces.
