

Ty Seren

Supported Living in Crumlin, Newport

Welcome to Ty Seren

Once a local pub, Ty Seren is now a vibrant supported living home where adults with autism and learning disabilities build confidence, friendships, and everyday skills in Crumlin, Wales.

Ty Seren is a truly unique supported living home in Crumlin. Once a local pub, now full of colour, character and purpose.

With six bedrooms, two lounges, a games room, and an enclosed garden, it offers space to connect, recharge, and enjoy shared living in a safe and positive way.

Life here is shaped around what matters to each person, with support that encourages independence and choice.

People are supported to build meaningful routines and achieve their goals - whether that's attending day centres, colleges, and community clubs, or developing living skills.

Our dedicated team takes time to understand every individual, using our unique Strive model to create stable foundations, strengthen relationships, and support wellbeing so care is tailored to the whole person, not just their needs.

This is ideal for...

- Someone who enjoys shared living with positive daily structure
- A person building independence through skill-focused goals
- Someone who thrives in a colourful, energetic home environment.
- A person who likes community routines and social opportunities.
- Someone who needs calm reassurance alongside confidence-building support.

Once a pub, now a thriving home

A vibrant six-bedroom home with lounges, a games room and a garden – designed for connection, confidence-building, and daily life that feels meaningful.
