Arnold
Residential

Situated in Nottingham, Arnold is a specialist nine-bed residential home for adults with learning disabilities, autism, and mental health needs.

Alongside eight bedrooms, there's one fully-equipped flat on-site designed for independent living. Several bedrooms feature ensuite facilities, while others share a bathroom. Throughout, there's shared communal spaces including a lounge, kitchen and a garden, offering comfortable areas for socialising, relaxing, and enjoying group activities.

Our skilled team can support a wide range of communication preferences and complex diagnoses. They work closely with each person, offering tailored support through our Strive model, which focuses on building trust, promoting independence, and enhancing overall wellbeing.

With strong emphasis on stability and relationships, Arnold provides a nurturing environment where people feel safe, valued, and empowered.

Person Specification

The people living at Arnold are hoping to welcome someone who is kind, caring, and eager to join a friendly, supportive home.

It's perfect for someone who wants to be part of a community, and is keen to develop their daily living skills while living with others

Your journey to ivolve

Step 1.

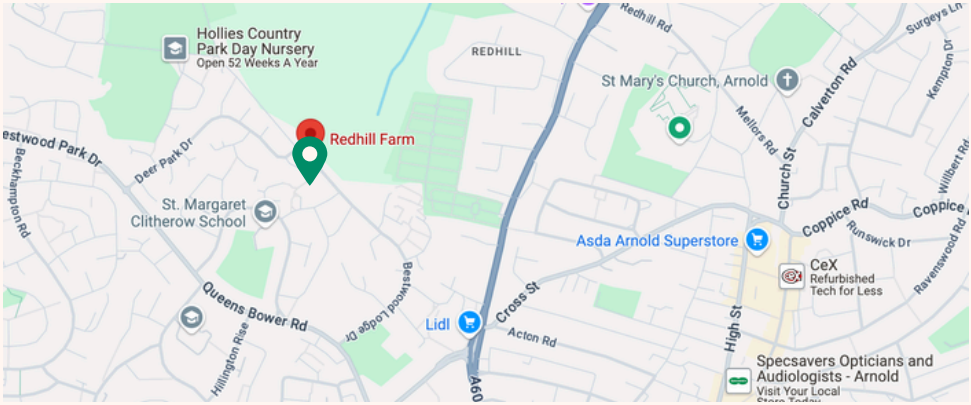
Your journey starts with a referral from your care team. We'll then arrange a meeting with you to see if the home is a good match.

Step 2.

If all involved feel the move should take place, you'll be invited to visit the home and the local area to see if you like it.

Step 3.

If everyone is happy for the move to take place, we'll then plan your move into your new home at a pace that's right for you.



Arnold is in the vibrant market town of the Borough of Gedling. Arnold boasts the largest town centre in the borough, offering plenty of shops, cafes, and local activities to enjoy. With excellent transport links into Nottingham, it's easy to enjoy the comfort of a friendly town with the opportunities of city life.
