Brendon House

Specialst Supported Living in Chesterfield!

Welcome to Brendon House

A welcoming supported living home in Chesterfield, with four self-contained flats to build independence, and enjoy life in a community-focused environment.

Brendon House is a thoughtfully designed supported living home in Chesterfield, offering four spacious self-contained flats across two floors. Each person has their own private space, alongside shared lounges on each floor where people socialise, and a large, accessible garden that creates opportunities to relax.

Life here is shaped around choice, connection and possibility. Whether it's movie nights, card games, planning holidays, or exploring local opportunities, each day reflects what matters most to the individual. With excellent links into the local community, people are supported to take part in activities, volunteering, education and social experiences that build confidence and independence.

Support is delivered by a consistent, skilled team who make Brendon House a place to belong. Using our Strive model, support is proactive and focused on helping people grow, achieve their goals, and live meaningful, fulfilling lives.

This is ideal for...

- Adults with learning disabilities seeking independence within a supportive environment.
- Autistic people who benefit from structure and routine.
- Individuals with mental health needs requiring consistent support.
- People with communication needs requiring tailored approaches.
- Individuals motivated to engage socially and build their living skills.
