Welcome to Florence House

Florence House is a vibrant residential home in Blackburn, where adults can rediscover confidence and enjoy meaningful daily life in a community shaped around each person's unique journey. ☆

Florence House is a spacious 13-bedroom residential home in Blackburn, thoughtfully arranged across two floors with comfortable private bedrooms and welcoming shared spaces including communal lounges, a shared dining area, and a dedicated activities room.

The home supports adults with learning disabilities, mental health needs, acquired brain injuries, and sensory impairments. Life here is lively and engaging, with opportunities to enjoy creative activities, community outings, wellbeing sessions, and meaningful social moments that build friendships and confidence.

Support is guided by our Strive model, which focuses on understanding each person deeply and helping them grow in independence, wellbeing, and choice. Our experienced and highly trained colleagues provide personalised support with daily routines, health needs, and life skills, empowering people to achieve goals that matter to them.

This is ideal for...

- Those that like social living with consistent reassurance.
- People that want to build their independence and confidence
- Individuals compatible with friendly, mixed-gender residential community environments.
- Those who enjoy activities, routine, and community involvement.
- People that benefit from structured support with daily living and wellbeing goals.

We've Got Our Own Activity Room!

A vibrant, shared space where people enjoy creative sessions, social activities, and meaningful moments that build confidence, friendships, and everyday joy.
