

Gilders Supported Living

Gilders is a peaceful, four-bed supported living home in the heart of Takeley where life moves at a steady, reassuring pace.

People here are supported with mental health needs, and the team offer the kind of practical, everyday help that makes life feel manageable: attending appointments, building daily living skills, developing healthy routines, and keeping on top of medication.

The house itself has a warm, familiar feel. Two bedrooms have their own en-suites, while the other two share a bright bathroom. A homely kitchen brings everyone together, and there's a relaxed living room for unwinding at the end of the day. Alongside this, there's a utility room, a games room that adds fun and connection, and a zen room - a quiet space for decompressing.

Care here is guided by our Strive model, offering thoughtful, person-led support that is focused on helping people to grow in confidence and independence at their own pace.

Person Specification

The home is perfect for someone friendly, easy-going, and up for being part of a home where people enjoy walks, games, meals out, local outings, and spending time with others at nearby homes.

Your journey to involve

Step 1.

Your journey starts with a referral from your care team. We'll then arrange a meeting with you to see if the home is a good match.

Step 2.

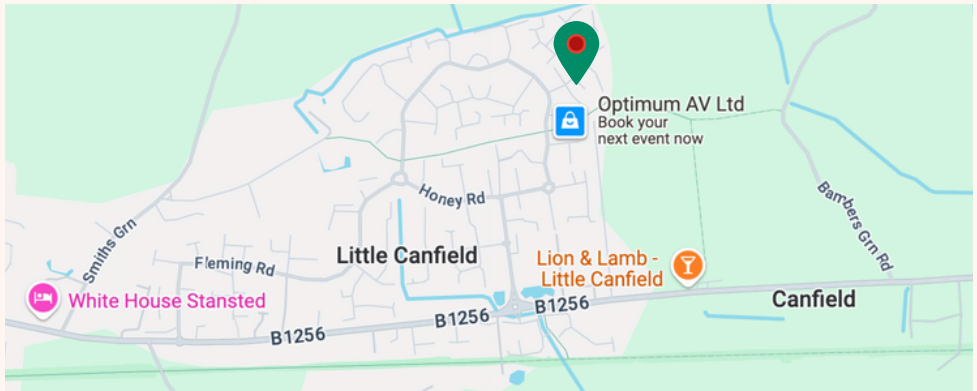

If all involved feel the move should take place, you'll be invited to visit the home and the local area to see if you like it.

Step 3.

If everyone is happy for the move to take place, we'll then plan your move into your new home at a pace that's right for you.

You'll find Gilders in Little Canfield, less than three miles from London Stansted Airport and close to Hatfield Forest. Based on a quiet estate in Takeley, there's local shops, cafés, and green spaces nearby, plus great transport links into Bishop's Stortford and beyond for outings and day trips.
