Welcome to Humberston Avenue

Humberston Avenue is a welcoming residential home in Grimsby where people are supported to build confidence and enjoy meaningful experiences with encouragement, companionship and laughter. ☆

Set in a friendly village near Grimsby and Cleethorpes, Humberston Avenue supports men with learning disabilities and a range of complex needs, including autism, epilepsy, dementia, schizophrenia and complex trauma.

The home offers eight ensuite bedrooms across a spacious setting, alongside welcoming communal spaces including a large lounge, games room, kitchen and dining area where people can relax, socialise and spend time together.

Life at Humberston is active and shaped around what matters to each person. Whether it's a trip to the beach, meals out or simply discovering new hobbies, people enjoy meaningful experiences and develop independence at their own pace.

Support is shaped by an experienced, team and guided by Strive, our proactive model of support. Alongside person-led care and positive behaviour support, we ensure people's health, wellbeing and changing needs are understood.
