Wistaston House

Residential Care in Crewe, Cheshire!

Welcome to Wistaston House

A welcoming seven-bedroom home in Wistaston, near Crewe, where people are supported to build meaningful routines, and enjoy everyday moments.

Wistaston House is an inviting residential home in the heart of a friendly village community, offering space, comfort, and a genuine sense of belonging.

With seven en-suite bedrooms, each personalised to reflect individual tastes, it provides a reassuring place to call home.

Shared spaces bring people together naturally - from the light-filled lounge to the sunny conservatory that doubles as a dining and social space.

The large garden offers room to relax and socialise, especially in warmer months. Life here is shaped by choice and opportunity. Whether it's local walks, social evenings, or bigger adventures, each day is built around what matters to the person.

Support is delivered by a consistent, experienced team, using our Strive model to build confidence in a safe environment where people can truly flourish.

This is ideal for...

- Adults with learning disabilities seeking a stable, social home environment.
- Autistic people that like calm spaces and predictable routines.
- Individuals with mental health needs requiring consistent, reassuring support.
- People with lower-level behaviours of concern, supported proactively.
- Individuals who enjoy community activities and shared living.

Vibrant, Social Everyday Living

An active home where meaningful routines and shared experiences come together to build confidence, independence, and a genuine sense of belonging.
