

Cannon Court

Supported Living in North Yorkshire

Welcome to Cannon Court

A thoughtfully designed supported living home offering nine self-contained flats for adults with learning disabilities and autism. Perfect for growing independence towards a life you truly call your own.

Cannon Court is a welcoming supported living home designed to balance independence with reassurance. There's nine modern self-contained flats across three floors, each offering private living space where people can relax, develop routines and enjoy independence.

Set in a quiet cul-de-sac close to Ripon city centre, the home ensures people feel connected to the community. Local cafés, shops and green spaces are just a short walk away, creating opportunities for everyday independence and activities.

Support is provided by a skilled and compassionate team who take time to understand each person's goals, preferences and strengths. Guided by Strive, our model of support, the team focuses on helping people grow in confidence, develop independence and build meaningful relationships.

From exploring local markets to enjoying nearby parks, life at Cannon Court is about creating opportunities, celebrating progress and helping people flourish in a place they proudly call home.

This is ideal for...

- Adults with learning disabilities seeking independent living with structured support.
- Autistic people benefiting from predictable routines and community-based lifestyles.
- Those building confidence with daily living skills / independence.
- People wanting their own space with reassuring, consistent support.
- Individuals that enjoy being part of their local, friendly community.
