Welcome to Poplars

Set in the heart of Horley, Poplars is an established home where adults with learning disabilities, autism and complex needs are supported to enjoy friendships and flourish in their local community. ☆

Poplars is a welcoming 6-bed residential home in Horley, Surrey, supporting adults with learning disabilities, autism, epilepsy and other complex needs. Home to a close-knit group of ladies who have lived together for many years, Poplars offers a settled, supportive environment to feel safe, valued and truly at home.

The detached property features six bedrooms, including three with en-suites, two communal lounges, a shared dining area and a large garden with peaceful places to socialise and enjoy outdoors.

Life at Poplars is shaped around what matters most to each person. Whether that's preparing snacks, shopping locally, maintaining cultural and spiritual connections, building independence or enjoying activities in the community, we're here to help make it happen

Our colleagues take time to understand people, working in a multidisciplinary way. Using our Strive model, in-house Positive Behaviour Support (PBS) team and person-centred support planning, we help people to live truly fulfilling lives.

Supporting people to flourish in a place they call home

At involve, we do more than meet people's needs - we help them thrive. That's why we created Strive: our unique model of care, designed to support active, fulfilling lives.

Strive is how we turn good care into great lives. It's the involve way - proactive, positive and co-produced. But what does that look like? It's different for everyone - but it's always rooted in confidence, relationships and community.

Strive Foundations:

Active Support

Health & Wellbeing

Total Communication
