

Dawson House

Residential

Person Specification

We'd love to welcome someone who would enjoy a friendly and relaxed home, with opportunities to spend time in the garden, share activities and become part of the local community. Dawson House may suit an adult who values friendship alongside privacy.

Dawson House is a 7-bed residential home in Carshalton Beeches, supporting adults with learning disabilities, autism and complex needs.

Set in a quiet neighbourhood, the home has two communal lounges, an open-plan kitchen and 7 ensuite bedrooms, offering room to enjoy company as well as privacy. Outside, the prize-winning garden is a source of pride, with colourful planting, lawn games and a barbecue for relaxed afternoons and shared celebrations.

Life at Dawson House is shaped around each person's interests, goals and choices. Through our Strive model of support, the team helps people build confidence and take an active role in their community. One person recently volunteered helping to pack 87 food boxes for local families. It is a home where everyday moments can grow into meaningful connections, experiences and a sense of belonging.

Your journey to involve

Step 1.

Your journey starts with a referral from your care team. We'll then arrange a meeting with you to see if the home is a good match.

Step 2.

If all involved feel the move should take place, you'll be invited to visit the home and the local area to see if you like it.

Step 3.

If everyone is happy for the move to take place, we'll then plan your move into your new home at a pace that's right for you.

Dawson House is in a peaceful residential area of Carshalton Beeches. Local shops and pubs are a five-minute walk away. Wallington town centre is around 15 minutes away on foot and offers leisure centres, parks, a library, cinema and a variety of local amenities. The home is also situated on the main 154 bus route, making it easy to explore the surrounding area and stay connected with the wider community
