

Logans

Specialist Supported Living in Horley, Surrey

Welcome to Logans

A calm home in Horley where people are supported to build independence, enjoy meaningful routines, and feel truly at home, with space to connect and grow. ☆

Logans is a thoughtfully designed supported living home in Horley, offering independence, comfort and connection.

The home includes five spacious bedrooms, each with its own ensuite, giving people privacy and a real sense of personal space. Alongside this, shared areas bring people together, including a large kitchen where meals are shared, and a relaxed lounge / dining area.

Outside, the garden offers space to enjoy fresh air, socialise or take a quiet moment, with a sensory shed creating an additional calming retreat. Every part of Logans has been shaped to feel safe, homely and easy to live in.

Life here is guided by our Strive model, where support is built around each person's goals, strengths and everyday routines.

With a consistent and experienced team, people are supported to build confidence, develop life skills and enjoy a fulfilling, meaningful life.

This is ideal for...

- Young adults with learning disabilities, looking to build independent living skills.
- Autistic people that benefit from structured, proactive support.
- Individuals that enjoy shared living and social interaction.
- Those with mental health needs who benefit from calm environments with reassurance
- People that are keen to engage in their local community.
