Supported Living

Person Specification

We're looking for someone with autism or learning disabilities that wants to live with another person. Compatibility is important, so we will carefully consider support needs, personality and interests to help create a positive and comfortable home environment.

Macdonald Avenue is a 2 bed supported living home in Westcliff-on-Sea for adults with autism and learning disabilities who are comfortable sharing their home with others and would like to have company.

The semi-detached property offers two large double bedrooms, a shared bathroom and a separate sleep-in room. Downstairs, there is a spacious communal lounge, a galley kitchen and a separate dining room that opens onto a large back garden, giving people room to relax, spend time together and build everyday independence skills.

Support is shaped around each person through Strive, our model of support, helping people feel safe, make choices and work towards goals that matter to them. This includes developing living skills, enjoying holidays, volunteering or employment, and becoming more involved in the local community.

The team provides consistent support, balancing independence with reassurance so each person can grow in confidence and enjoy a fulfilling life.

Your journey to involve

Step 1.

Your journey starts with a referral from your care team. We'll then arrange a meeting with you to see if the home is a good match.

Step 2.

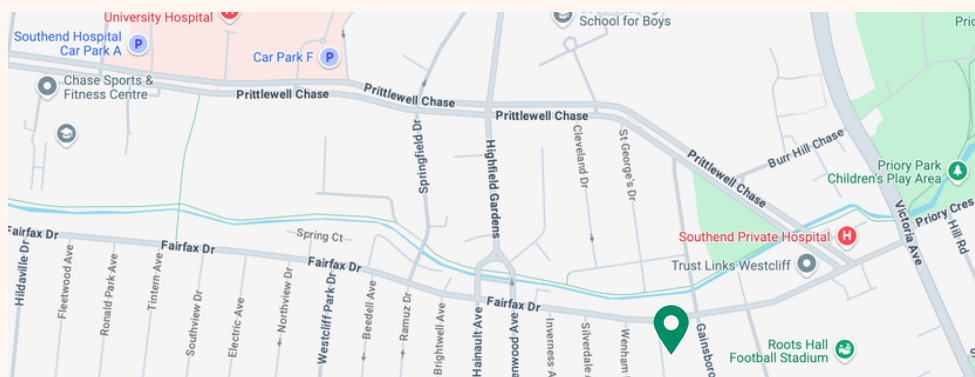

If all involved feel the move should take place, you'll be invited to visit the home and the local area to see if you like it.

Step 3.

If everyone is happy for the move to take place, we'll then plan your move into your new home at a pace that's right for you.

Macdonald Avenue is in the seaside town of Westcliff-on-Sea, around a 30-minute walk from the town centre and seafront. Nearby bus stops offer routes across the local area and direct connections to larger towns and cities. Local attractions include the beach, Adventure Island, cinemas, leisure centres, cafés and shops, offering plenty of opportunities to enjoy the community and try new experiences.
