Complex Residential Care in Colchester

Welcome to Tenpenny Close

Tenpenny Close is a residential home in Colchester supporting adults with complex needs to live safe, fulfilling lives. With private living spaces and expert 24/7 support, it offers independence and reassurance.

Tenpenny Close is a purpose-built residential home in Colchester for adults with learning disabilities, autism, physical disabilities and other complex needs.

The home offers seven self-contained living spaces, each thoughtfully designed to provide privacy and promote living as independently as possible.

Every ground floor flat includes a private bedroom, bathroom, kitchen and living / dining area along with its own personal parking space.

There's a laundry room and shared communal room too, enabling people to socialise, relax and spend time together if they choose.

Support at Tenpenny Close is delivered by a skilled team providing 24/7 support and guided by our Strive model of care.

This model focuses on independence, wellbeing, stability and meaningful outcomes - helping people build their confidence, develop skills and live the life they choose.

This is ideal for...

- Adults with complex learning disabilities seeking safe, supported independence.
- Autistic people benefiting from calm, predictable environments
- Individuals requiring consistent 24/7 support with personal space.
- People with physical disabilities needing accessible living spaces.
- Individuals compatible with a small, supportive community.

Self-contained homes with support

This model is unique, offering private and accessible self-contained homes in a 24/7 residential setting with assistive tech add-on.
