

The Elms

Supported Living in Hengoed

Welcome to The Elms

The Elms is a fully adapted 6-bed supported living bungalow in Hengoed, where adults with learning disabilities, autism, physical and complex needs enjoy a sociable home life alongside meaningful routines.

A single-storey, accessible bungalow with 6 bedrooms sit alongside a spacious kitchen, utility room, dining area and generous lounge, giving people room to enjoy time together while retaining their own personal space.

The home includes an accessible wet room, a separate bathroom with an Arjo bath, and space for wheelchairs, hoists and mobility equipment. Outside, the large garden offers a patio and wheelchair-accessible planters, creating opportunities to share activities.

An established support team brings warmth, consistency and a deep understanding of each person's routines, communication and wellbeing.

Support is guided by Strive and strengthened with specialist in-house PBS and a MDT approach involving occupational therapists and speech and language specialists.

Together, we help people feel safe, respected and confident to stay active, make choices and build independence.

This is ideal for...

- An adult with learning disabilities, autism or complex physical needs
- Someone comfortable sharing a sociable home with housemates.
- A person who enjoys regular outings and community activities
- Someone comfortable in a home that can sometimes feel lively.
- A wheelchair user or someone requiring hoists and accessible facilities in a warm environment.

Accessible living made personal

A fully adapted bungalow with wheelchair-friendly spaces, an Arjo bath and accessible garden planters, supporting comfort, choice and everyday participation.
