

Oadby

Residential Care in Leicestershire

Welcome to Oadby

A friendly eight-bedroom residential care home in Oadby, where adults with learning disabilities, autism, mental health and complex needs can build confidence, independence and belonging.

Oadby is an 8-bed residential home where connection and independence come together. 7 bedrooms are ensuite, alongside a self-contained 1-bed flat offering extra independence. 3 ground-floor bedrooms have level access, while shared spaces include a large lounge, dining room, sensory space and spacious garden with swings and a trampoline.

Days here are shaped around the person, from gardening and BBQs to community groups, discos and trips further afield. The team build trusted relationships through consistency and promoting choice.

Guided by Strive, support focuses on building confidence and achieving goals. Our in-house PBS specialists and wider MDT provide joined-up expertise when alongside trauma-informed practice that considers each person's experiences. It's a lively home where people can grow and enjoy everyday moments together.

This is ideal for...

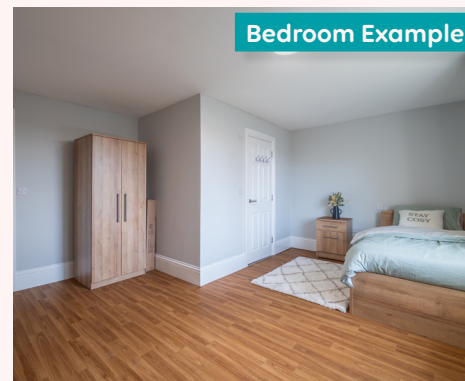

- Adults with learning disabilities, autism, mental / complex needs
- Those who enjoy a sociable home, and shared activities with others.
- Someone who'd enjoy gardening, BBQs and community days out
- Those that benefit from consistent support with daily living skills
- People happy sharing spaces in an active, mixed gender household.

Choice, comfort and independence

Seven ensuite bedrooms, three with ground-floor level access, plus a self-contained flat, offer different ways to feel settled and independent.
