

Wendover House

Residential Care

Home in Aylesbury

Welcome to Wendover House

A sociable residential care home in Stoke Mandeville, supporting adults with learning disabilities, autism and complex needs to build confidence, independence and meaningful everyday lives. ☆

Wendover House is a bright, welcoming seven-bedroom residential home in Stoke Mandeville, with seven en-suite bedrooms arranged across two floors. Two comfortable lounges and a sensory room create space to socialise or unwind, while the open-plan kitchen and dining area brings people together for shared meals and celebrations.

Outside, a large enclosed garden includes a wooden activity cabin, offering space for relaxation, and creativity.

The experienced team builds support around each person's routines, strengths and goals. Guided by Strive, and supported by our in-house PBS specialists, and trauma-informed practice, we focus on safety, confidence, relationships and growing independence.

As a sister site to Wendover Bungalow, Wendover House can also support a planned step-down pathway towards supported living, where this becomes the right next step.

This is ideal for...

- Adults with learning disabilities, autism or complex support needs
- Those that enjoy a sociable home and spending time with others
- People that benefit from predictable routines and consistent support.
- Those that want to build confidence, and develop everyday living skills.
- Adults happy sharing communal spaces in a mixed-gender home.

Supporting people to flourish in a place they call home

At involve, we do more than meet people's needs - we help them thrive. That's why we created Strive: our unique model of care, designed to support active, fulfilling lives.

Strive is how we turn good care into great lives. It's the involve way - proactive, positive and co-produced. But what does that look like? It's different for everyone - but it's always rooted in confidence, relationships and community.
