

Aylestone

Residential Care
Home in Leicester

Welcome to Aylestone

A warm and lively seven-bedroom home in Leicester, where personalised support, everyday independence and meaningful activities help people build their confidence and enjoy life.

Aylestone supports up to 7 adults with learning disabilities, autism, mental health needs and complex health needs, including epilepsy and scoliosis.

Set across two floors, every bedroom has an en-suite, alongside three communal lounges, a large shared kitchen and spaces for activities and sensory support.

Outside, the landscaped garden offers room to relax and spend time together.

Life here is shaped around each person.

Colleagues encourage everyday skills such as cooking, shopping and budgeting, while supporting regular community activities, education and days out.

Through Strive, our model of support, trauma-informed practice and specialist input from our in-house Positive Behaviour Support team, we focus on understanding the person behind the need, building confidence and creating meaningful opportunities for independence, choice, connection and belonging in everyday life.

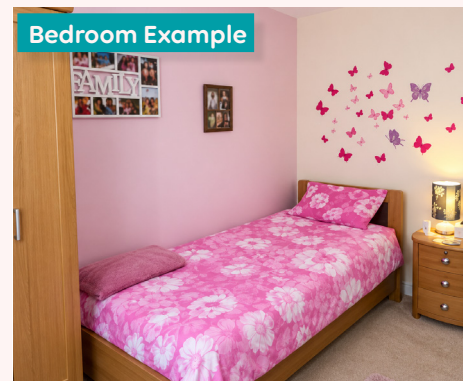

This is ideal for...

- Someone with learning disabilities, autism or associated complex needs.
- A person who needs structured, consistent and person-led support
- Someone who enjoys a sociable home and shared activities.
- An individual who may benefit from specialist PBS input and routines
- Those compatible with a mix-gender home and active community life.

Space to enjoy life and have fun

A large landscaped garden with basketball nets and trampolines creates space for fresh air, movement, shared activities and quieter moments outdoors.
