

Sawley

Residential Care in Derbyshire

Welcome to Sawley

A welcoming, all-male home in Sawley where our experienced team support people to live confidently, socially and in a way that feels right for them.

Sawley is a lively six-bed residential home for men with learning disabilities and autism, where individuality is understood and everyday life is shared.

Set across two floors, the home offers a mix of bedrooms with private toilets and sinks, shared bathrooms, a communal lounge, dining space, kitchen and laundry room, creating a homely environment.

Life here is full of personality. The home can be busy and noisy at times, so it suits people who enjoy being around others and are comfortable in a vibrant setting.

Days are shaped around what matters to those living here - from trips to Derby or Nottingham, to coffee mornings with families, pub visits, or even watching planes at East Midlands Airport.

Support is delivered by a skilled, consistent team, guided by our Strive model - focusing on stability, relationships and meaningful progress.

With 24-hour support and experienced leadership, Sawley is a place where people are understood, supported and encouraged to live life their way.

This is ideal for...

- Males 25+ seeking a sociable, shared home environment
- Individuals comfortable in lively, noisy household settings.
- People with learning disabilities, autism and those with complex needs that require consistency.
- Those looking to access their community and build living skills.
- Individuals able to manage stairs independently.

Male-only home rated CQC 'Good'!

Rated CQC Good in all areas, Sawley offers a lively, supportive environment with experienced colleagues who truly understand and adapt to each person.
