Kirklands

Residential Care Home in Leeds

Welcome to Kirklands

Set in the heart of Morley in Leeds, Kirklands is a calm residential home where adults with learning disabilities, autism and mental health needs can feel supported, connected and valued.

Behind its traditional stone exterior, Kirklands is a welcoming home where everyday moments matter, from sharing meals and laughter to enjoying hobbies.

Spread across several floors, the home offers 6 ensuite bedrooms with shared bathrooms, comfortable lounges and a spacious kitchen-diner.

Outside, an enclosed garden provides space to unwind, enjoy the sunshine and spend time with loved ones. The home also has access to a vehicle, supporting trips, shopping and events further afield.

Life here is shaped around individual interests, whether that's gardening, getting creative, visiting the gym or exploring the local community.

We provide personalised care, guided by Strive, our model of support. Working with our in-house PBS team, they use trauma-informed approaches to encourage independence and help people flourish.

This is ideal for...

- Individuals with learning disabilities who need consistent support.
- Autistic adults who require familiar routines and understanding.
- People with mental health needs that would benefit from trauma-informed support.
- Someone who enjoys companionship alongside their own personal space
- Those who enjoy shared community activities and local relationships.
