

Wickleys

Supported Living in Charlwood, Surrey

Welcome to Wickleys

Tucked away in the village of Charlwood, Wickleys is a supported living home where young men can build independence, friendships and brighter futures.

Wickleys supports up to 6 young men with learning disabilities, autism and complex needs, offering a balance of independence and personal support.

The home has 5 bedrooms and an annexe, with 4 beds upstairs and 1 downstairs, most with ensuite facilities too. Two shared lounges, an open-plan kitchen/dining area, and a large garden offer plenty of space to socialise or enjoy everyday activities. The home even has a dedicated sensory room, perfect for those that need quiet time to regulate.

Our caring colleagues take time to understand people's needs and interests. Guided by our Strive model of support, with expertise from our in-house Positive Behaviour Support (PBS) team and a trauma-informed approach, they create positive routines, celebrate achievements and help each person build confidence, make choices and live life their way.

The team have recently won at the Stars of Social Care awards in the Supported Living category, winning because of their dedication and passion to improving lives.

This is ideal for...

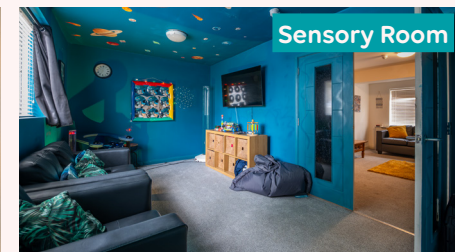

- Someone with learning disabilities, autism, ADHD or epilepsy.
- A young man who enjoys having an active, sociable lifestyle.
- Someone who values friendship while having their own space.
- A person who would enjoy living alongside others of similar ages.
- An individual looking to develop independence, confidence and everyday living skills.

Space to relax, unwind & regulate
