Wolds Reach

Supported Living Home in Driffield

Welcome to Wolds Reach

Based in the market town of Driffield, Wolds Reach offers 10 self-contained bungalows where people can enjoy the comforts of their own home, with specialist support close by.

At Wolds Reach, independence starts with having a space to call your own. Set across three single-storey buildings, 10 spacious, self-contained, one-bed bungalows offer privacy, comfort and room to make everyday life your own.

Each home offers individual living space, while a welcoming communal area creates opportunities to connect, enjoy activities and build friendships.

Landscaped outdoor spaces, parking and nearby amenities make it easy to enjoy life beyond the front door.

Our dedicated colleagues take time to understand what matters to each person, encouraging everyday choices, new experiences and growing confidence.

Guided by our Strive model of support, specialist in-house Positive Behaviour Support (PBS) expertise, multidisciplinary input and trauma-informed approaches, we tailor support around individual needs, helping people feel safe, understood and empowered to flourish.

Life here is full of possibility, helping people to build independence at their own pace.

This is ideal for...

- Someone who wants privacy alongside spaces for connection.
- A person who needs predictable routines and personalised support.
- Someone whose needs and preferences suit a self-contained, single-occupancy home.
