Pennine House

Residential Care Home in Chesterfield

Welcome to Pennine House

Tucked away in Chesterfield, Pennine House is a welcoming home where men with learning disabilities, autism and mental health needs can build friendships, enjoy independence and flourish.

Life at Pennine House is shaped by the little things that matter. From friendly games of pool to countryside adventures, there's always something to enjoy and someone to share it with.

This spacious home has eight en-suite bedrooms, two comfortable lounges, a shared dining room and a games area.

Outside, the sensory garden has a swing, sandpit and all-weather hot tub, creating space to relax and have fun together.

Our caring colleagues provide personalised 1:1 support, helping each person develop life skills, explore interests and build meaningful relationships.

Guided by Strive, our model of support, and with specialist input from our in-house PBS team and multidisciplinary colleagues, we take a trauma-informed approach to care that nurtures confidence, choice and independence, helping everyone feel valued and understood.

This is ideal for...

- Someone with learning disabilities, autism or mental health needs.
- An individual who enjoys a sociable home and shared activities.
- A person comfortable sharing spaces while maintaining their own privacy.
- Someone who likes outings, building friendships and exploring their local community.
- An individual who needs consistent routines and personal 1:1 support.

A Garden Full of Possibilities

From sensory play and sunny afternoons to relaxing in the all-weather hot tub, our garden offers something for everyone to enjoy.

Supporting people to flourish in a place they call home

At ivolve, we do more than meet people's needs - we help them thrive. That's why we created Strive: our unique model of care, designed to support active, fulfilling lives.

Strive is how we turn good care into great lives. It's the ivolve way - proactive, positive and co-produced. But what does that look like? It's different for everyone - but it's always rooted in confidence, relationships and community.

Strive Foundations:

- Active Support
- Health & Wellbeing
- Total Communication
- Capable Environments
- Trauma-Informed Practice
